PROMENADE COMMITTEE.

C. M. Ingersoll Elected Chairman
by 1915. Hill Treasurer.

At a meeting of the junior class held Friday, Colin M. Ingersoll of Ridgefield, Conn., was elected chairman of the junior promenade committee after some close balloting, and Howard R. Hill of Brooklyn, New York, treasurer. The remainder of the committee as appointed by the chairman is as follows: Ogden D. Budd, jr., of New York City, D. S. Squire of Morristown, N. J., G. D. Howell, jr., of Hartford, E. L. Pollock, jr., of Chicago, Ill., B. L. Smith of Oak Park, Ill., M. L. Furnivall of Hartford, G. G. Nilsson of Somerville, Mass., R. A. Kinney of Brooklyn, N. Y., E. W. Ludwig of Hartford, and L. F. Jefferson of Darien, Conn.

As far as is known at present, the promenade will be held Monday, February 9. In this case Junior Week will commence Thursday, February 5, when teas and dances will probably be held at the majority of the fraternity houses. On Friday comes the college german, and on Saturday the glee club concert. It is possible that on a day closely following the promenade the college dramatic association will produce a play and give both a matinee and an evening performance.

The music at the promenade is to be furnished by Wittstein's orchestra of New Haven. The firm to provide the programs and the caterer have yet to be decided.

MEETING OF TRUSTEES.

J. P. Morgan Elected to Corporation.

Fifteen of the twenty-four trustees met Saturday noon and elected J. P. Morgan of New York a member of the corporation to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father, J. Pierpont Morgan. Those who were present at the meeting were: President Flavel S. Luther, Rev. Dr. Francis Goodwin of Hartford, Hon. William E. Curtis of New York, Sidney S. Fisher of Philadelphia, James J. Goodwin of Hartford, L. Henry Woodward, secretary, of Hartford, Ambrose Spencer Murray, jr., of New York, Hon. Frank L. Wilcox of Berlin, Rev. Dr. Henry Ferguson of Hartford, Edgar F. Waterman, treasurer, of Hartford, Edward B. Hatch of Hartford, William Guinn Mather of Cleveland, George Dawson Howell of Hartford, Hon. Joseph Buffington of Pittsburgh, Pa., Robert Thorne, jr., of Boston.

The trustees were served the annual luncheon at Stickney's and many of them witnessed the football game with Colgate.

COLGATE BARELY WINS.

TRINITY PUTS UP GREAT FIGHT, BUT VISITORS ARE TOO STRONG.
HUDSON AND ELDER STAR.

On Saturday Trinity's goal line was crossed for the first time this season, when Colgate sent her team down to Hartford to ward off Trinity vengeance for the Blue and Gold's defeat last year. The score was 6 to 0, but the local eleven deserves only commendation for the very creditable battle which it put up against heavy odds. Owing to the persistent rain which continued throughout a large part of the contest, Trinity Field presented a swampy and slippery footing that was highly unfavorable to the Trinity style of play and which gave the heavier opponents an immense advantage in the amount of endurance that was called for. Under the circumstances both teams played a speedy game, and the comparatively few fumbles that occurred were excusable. One of Trinity's fumbles proved fatal, however, for a Red player fell on the ball when Coffey muffed a punt on his own 20-yard line. Colgate rushed the ball over in a few downs; this was in the third period.

Trinity outplayed the visitors throughout the first half, for the latter were unable to check the powerful rushes of Hudson who tore through the line for long gains time and again. The half ended with the ball in Trinity's possession on Colgate's 12-yard line, just as Kinney was preparing for a try for goal from field. The visitors made their score at the start of the second half, but Trinity came back with a rush and threatened to score. In the last quarter the superior weight of the Red eleven and their long list of substitutes sent in to relieve the rain-soaked and mud-streaked team-mates began to tell on the light Trinity men, who fought valiantly, but were fast tiring. Many offences for rough and off-side play prevented another tally.

Hudson starred for Trinity. The line put up heroic defence against their opponents, who outweighed them eight pounds to a man, and Cole and Elder on the ends were brilliant, and tackled like fiends. Huntington and Swartout shone for the visitors.

At the start of play, Abell kicked off to Hudson on his 5-yard line who tore off 25 yards before he was stopped. Colgate secured the ball on a fumble, and Abell punted. When Howell returned the kick, Colgate fumbled in turn and Hudson made a spectacular headlong slide through the quagmire, securing the ball. There was another exchange of punts. Hudson made another spectacular run of 25 yards on receiving Doane's punt. Trinity punted again, but Colgate was held for downs and lost the ball at midfield. Time was called for the quarter. Score 0—0.

In the second quarter, Colgate threatened Trinity's goal line, but the Blue and Gold made a heroic stand and wrested the ball away from them. When the period ended, the ball was in Trinity's possession in the shadow of Colgate's own goal posts.

At the start of play, Trinity failed to gain distance, and was forced to kick. Colgate fought her way back to midfield and Doane sent a long punt to Trinity's 10-yard line. Smith fumbled the wet ball on the first formation, and Colgate captured it. Trinity made a strong stand, and the Colgate backs were unable to break through and eat up the small distance to the goal line. Coffey fell on the ball after Colgate failed at a try for goal from field. Trinity's rushes earned a first down. Howell kicked to midfield and when a Colgate man muffed the kick, Moore regained it for Trinity. Hudson, Moore, and Smith broke through for long gains, bringing the ball to Colgate's 12-yard line. Smith signalled for a try at goal from field, but it was too late, for the whistle blew for the end of the half before Kinney had a chance to try his luck. Score 0—0.

Abell kicked to Howell at the commencement of play. Howell punted, and after failing to penetrate the Trinity line, Colgate punted in turn.

SUNDAY CHAPEL.

Judge Buffington Makes Excellent Address.

Judge Joseph Buffington, '75, of Pittsburg, Penn., spoke at the Sunday chapel service. He said that his training had not been for the pulpit, but that he hoped that he could leave a message that would make an impression. Choosing scriptural guidance for his talk, he read the words from the 10th chapter of John at the 10th verse: "I have come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." Judge Buffington said that life was the one great thing of interest to the college man. He showed how the world had for long generations had a very narrow view of what life was, neglecting entirely the mind and body, and laying emphasis only on the spiritual side.

"It was a long time before the world learned to understand what Christ meant when he said that he had come that 'they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.' Finally one man saw that he referred to the neglect which men had made of their minds, and later another man saw how young men were regarding their bodies, and learned that Christ had meant that side, too. On this understanding of the three-fold nature of man was founded the great Young Men's Christian Association."

The Judge declared that he believed the anaemic and wasted portraits of Christ as portrayed in medieval times were a great travesty on the real likeness of the great man, enured to hard labor with crude tools, to open skies and no shelter, and to travel unshod over rough mountains. He said that Christ could never have "appealed to the strong, stalwart fishermen had he not been a man of physical strength and endurance. If we are to accept this ideal, we must remember the sacredness of our bodies, 'the temples of the Holy Ghost.' In order to stand the stress and strain of twentieth century competition a man must have a strong and healthy body as the foundation of his usefulness.

The new men about to be matriculated, and on "the threshold of a new freedom" after the restraint of preparatory school life, were warned against the pitfalls of life. "Impurity of life is one of the greatest temptations. Take experience from wiser heads."

"Each one has his influence over his companions. No two earnest men can look each other in the face and talk a few minutes without each leaving that place a different man."

The Judge said that Trinity men were very often spoken of, but he should like to say a word about Trinity mothers: "Remember your mothers. So live that you may be able to look those mothers in the face. What is there in the world greater than a mother's love?"

"Get in touch with that loving, tender, compassionate Master, who will stick with you through thick and thin, whose mission was that you 'might have life, and have it more abundantly.'"

In closing, the speaker quoted the last verse of his own song, "The Trinity True."

"NOW THEN TRINITY"

COLLEGE MEETING FRIDAY.

Judge Buffington and Mr. G. D. Howell Among Speakers.

Friday night in Alumni Hall was held the usual college sing prior to a big game on Saturday. This gathering was marked by the presence of the Hon. Joseph Buffington, '75, and Mr. G. D. Howell, '82.

Professor Gettell was the first speaker called upon. After the storm of applause had died down, he spoke briefly of the prospects of the game and encouraged a support similar to that of the Amherst game.

The next speaker was Judge Buffington, one of Trinity's most noted alumni. He expressed his pleasure at returning to visit the college and his satisfaction with the personnel of the student body, but disapprobation upon the habit of cigarette smoking which he observed in some of the men. This habit, he said would do more to interfere with the obtaining of a position after graduation than any other similar habit.

Dr. Luther, when called upon for a speech, received a hearty ovation and made a few remarks, as usual pointed and humorous.

Perhaps the greatest faith in the team was shown by Mr. Howell, who when called upon gave a cheerfully optimistic view of the situation and foresaw victory for the blue and gold.

After a few remarks by Captain Hudson, the meeting adjourned on singing "'Neath the Elms."

COLGATE BARELY WINS.

The wet ball came to Coffee on a low hard drive; he let it slip out of his hands, and Colgate recovered on Trinity's 25-yard line. The Red backs fought their way through the stubbornly resisting line of their opponents. When the ball was within a few inches of the line, Huntington dove through for a touchdown. He failed to follow up with a goal. Score: Colgate 6; Trinity 0.

Abell kicked to Smith. Hudson ripped off 20 yards and had almost a clear field before him, but Doane, the last man, got him. Trinity made a desperate attack, but Colgate held for downs.

Colgate punted when Trinity held, and Howell returned the kick. Colgate worked the ball from her 10-yard line to Trinity territory. The period ended with the ball on Trinity's 45-yard line. Score: Colgate 6; Trinity 0.

Colgate punted at the beginning of the last period. Trinity tried to start a march up-field, but the Colgate line held and Howell had to punt.

Colgate made successful lunges against the line, but lost her own cause on penalties inflicted for repeated offences. Doane went back for a fake kick. Elder threw him with a fine tackle for loss. Colgate punted.

Trinity made her last effort to advance the ball but was finally forced to kick. Trinity regained the ball on a fumble. The game ended with the ball in Trinity's possession on her own 25-yard line.

Service at St. James'.

The appeal, made through the columns of the Tripod a few days ago, for volunteer singers at St. James' Church on Sunday evenings, has met with encouraging results. For the last two Sunday evenings, there have been over fifteen Trinity men in choir and between thirty and forty in Church. Mr. E. C. Thomas, the rector, hopes in time to make the church the center for Trinity men on Sunday evenings, and already good progress toward this end has been made.
